Pack It Up In A Canvas Tote

The problem with those re-useable shopping bags is that most of them are straight ugly. Look, we love Mother Earth, but the nasty, rough raw canvas of most eco-bags had us wishing for something a little more fun. Thankfully, B. Happybags has come to save the day with their collection of 18+ bags with wild prints, colorful patterns and washable materials. These bags also double as a nice beach tote for just $20!
